

Dorothy Maggie Felton

December 12, 1930 - August 31, 2012

Dorothy Maggie Felton, daughter of the late Phelonious and Edith Riley, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 12, 1930.

Dorothy was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. During her education she had an interest in fashion. This would lead to a long career in retail, starting with the May Company (Hecht's) and Lerner's Company (NY & Co.) until retirement.

She later married the late Charles Henry Felton, out of this union they were blessed with six children, Denise, Eric, Cathy, Ron (deceased), Olga and Sondra.

At an early age, Dorothy gave her life to Christ. She was a member of Whitestone Baptist Church. Later she rededicated her life to Christ and became a member of New Psalmist Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Walter Scott Thomas, Sr. There she served as a member of the Flower Guild with passion.

Dorothy was an excellent cook which she attributed to her mother Edith. She was best known for her homemade cakes and Southern Cuisine in which she would always sing while cooking. She also enjoyed spending time with her family, especially the family reunions. During these gatherings there was much laughter, eating and dancing.

Dorothy was preceded in death by three sisters, Mary Cole, Catherine Frazier and Mable (Snook) Leighton and two brothers, Phelonious (Boy) Riley and Hercules Riley.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Denise Riley, Sharon Felton and Sondra Burrell (daughter, Olga Felon preceded her in death); two sons, Eric Felton and Ron Felton; six grandchildren, Mia, Erica, Whitney, Sierra, Robby and Farrah; eight great-grandchildren, one loving brother-in-law, Louis Frazier; two sons-in-law, Robert N. Smith, Sr. and Kevin Burrell; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives; a friend of her daughter Denise, Alton Williams, who was a special care giver during her last years; and many, many neighbors and friends.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads:

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with all of suffering. In Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting this is to know at a time like this. I encourage you and your family to read this in your own copy of the bible and I hope this helps in your time of need.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
