

Dorothy D. Galloway

November 4, 1933 - January 13, 2016

God called His faithful servant Dorothy home Thursday, January 13, 2016.

She was born in Conowingo, Maryland on November 4, 1933 to Joseph and Mary Jones. Her cherished parents and sister, Edna Body preceded her in death. She was baptized and received Christ at an early age, always dedicated to reading God's word.

She attended Conowingo High School and graduated with honors. She loved for things to be neat, clean and in order and chose janitorial engineering as her chosen profession for over 50 years. Retiring from Baltimore City Department of General Services.

Throughout her life even a stranger was considered a friend and she made life lasting friendships. She enjoyed a good Coca Cola, her news paper and good conversations. Always willing to lend her hands to help, after she retired, she dedicated her life and love to her little people; showering them with care as a day-care provider.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her life: her son, Clyde L. Harris; daughter, Sondra L. Stamper; four grandchildren, Anthony, Keith, Patrice and Monique Galloway; a host of great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; devoted friend, Johnny Anderson; Angels of Mercy Care Givers, Dorothy and Vicky; 2 Sisters of the Heart, Aunt Ann and Aunt Vergie; and a host of god-children and cherished friends.
