

Dorothy Mae Harris

August 23, 1945 - November 19, 2015

Our beloved Dorothy Mae Harris, lovingly known as Dot, was born in Newbury, South Carolina on August 23, 1945, one out of twelve children of the late Ruby Downing Harris and Raymond Harris. She departed life on November 19, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Gorman High School in Prosperity, South Carolina. She gave her heart to the Lord at a young age at Antioch Baptist Church. At the age of twenty-three she joined her mother and siblings in Baltimore, Maryland. She continued her education at Baltimore City Community College. Dorothy was employed by Diamond Cab Company and the United States Postal Service for many years and also worked in the healthcare industry.

Dot was a kind, loving, intelligent and talented person with a heart of gold. She dedicated her life to her family and friends. She enjoyed spending quality time with her nieces and nephews. Dot was a “jack of all trades”. She loved to make custom jewelry, paint and sew. Dot was always there when you needed her and she loved to volunteer.

Dorothy leaves to mourn: her sisters, Bernette Toland, Betty Wynn, Ella Reese, Loretta Biddings and Sharon Harris; brothers, Arthur Harris, Melvin Harris, Elbert Harris, and James Harris; her godson, Rasoolullah Brother; lifetime friends, Olivia, Lola, Sherry, Bernadette and Harnitha; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My cousin will say;

*Remember me when you hear the wind blow.
I am with God, I need you to know.
He called my name, and I went to see
If the voice I heard was speaking to me.
He took my hand, we walked along
The road to heaven, where I belong.
The angles sang so sweet and clear.
They sang of love and that Jesus is near.
I felt his touch, I saw his face,
I knew in an instant I was in his grace.
He spoke to me, I heard him say,
You are home now child, you have found your way.
So remember me when you hear the wind blow.
I am home now with God, I need you to know*
