“ Precious was a role-model for all the young ladies on Bernice Avenue. She was an inspiration to many, from the way she carried herself to the words she spoke. For the family members that she leaves behind, my family wishes each of you peace and comfort. May the peace which comes from memories comfort each of you in the days ahead. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy – The Mosley Family!

To the Harris and Sydnor families. Precious is with the lord and hopefully we will all meet with GOD one day. I have a lot of memories of our younger days growing up on Bernice Ave. so hearing of Precious's passing brought back memories of Will and Renee and the thought of them being joined again. R.I.P. sis.

To the Harris Family, I Thank God for allowing my paths to cross with such a special person whom I knew as "Precious" We shared a mutual friend "Mary Johnson" and Precious lived up to this name. She was the funniest, loving, and caring person that took family and friends very serious. More than how much we loved her, God loved her more and she loved God, She loved her husband, her family and friends. We will all miss her deeply, ---- Michelle Johnson
