

Dorothy J. Hawkins

July 25, 1948 - May 15, 2014

MRS. DOROTHY JEAN HAWKINS, also known as Dot, 65, passed away suddenly in her home in Towson, Maryland.

Dorothy was born July 29, 1948 in Greenville, South Carolina to the late Robert and Catherine Jackson who relocated their family to Baltimore, Maryland. Dorothy attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later obtained her high school diploma in 2012.

Dorothy had lots of interests including long walks, shopping and writing. She devoted a lot of her time to helping others; even reading to the mentally-challenged students at the William S. Baer School.

Dorothy had a huge heart and was an avid humanitarian who would help anyone with her last dollar if need be. Dorothy walked with her head held high and didn't let anyone defer her beliefs of extending a helping hand to the needy. Clothes, food, shelter or love, Dorothy had it all and offered for little or nothing in return.

She leaves to mourn: her siblings, Bobby Jackson, Kenneth Jackson, Sarah Jobses, Jesse Jackson and William Jackson; brother-in-law, Charles Jobses; sisters-in-law, Thelma and Delores Jackson; niece, Beverly Jackson; nephews, Steven Jackson, Melville Roles, Jerbrae Roles, David Leach; a host of other relatives and friends.

D - is for Dot the nickname that was given.

O - is for other's love that was given to let you know you're always winning.

R - is for respect that you gave along the way.

O - is for overwhelming love that you gave day to day.

T - is for time and tenderness you gave to help other.

H - is for your heartfelt sternness to help guide another.

Y - is for you will always be loved and missed

as we seal this poem with a kiss.

— Janiece Jefferson (Jobes)
