

Dorothy Irene Martin

March 10, 1940 - September 28, 2001

Dorothy Irene Martin was born on March 10, 1940 to Ventrus and Edward Bernard Martin. After a lengthy illness, Dorothy departed this life on September 2, 2001. Dorothy received her education in the Baltimore Public School System, and graduated from Carver Vocational Technical High School with a high school degree in Cosmetology. Dorothy attended the University of Maryland for professional studies. Dorothy became a master beautician and hair stylist and practiced her profession for 36 years, for which she received many awards. She was a dedicated and active member of Unity United Methodist Church, where she sang on the choir and was a Lay (speaker) Reader for the church. She performed intrinsically missionary work to the able body, the sick, and the shut in. Dorothy also sang on the Morgan State University Mass Choir and traveled extensively. Dorothy loved God and was very faithful to her religion and church home. She knew the true meaning of close family ties, Dorothy was deeply involved in family matters and often lending a helping hand during the time of need. Dorothy leaves to cherish: a daughter, Crystal Martin-Evans; granddaughter, Crystal Ventrus Evans; two sisters, Vera M. Martin and Ventrus L. Gaither; six brothers, Edward B. Martin, Jr., Joseph C. Martin, Jerry Martin, David Martin, Alan Martin, Wilbert H. Jamison; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, many other relatives and friends.

“ I love you so much grandma! I still think of you everyday. I talk to Aunt Vera about you all of the time, we miss you. I love hearing stories about you that Aunt Vera tells me. You were strong, beautiful, intelligent, and everything a woman should be. I miss you so much and wish you were still with us.

From your granddaughter Crystal V. Evans
