“ My condolences to the family, friends of Ms. Cromwell. In your time of sorrow, may I leave you with these words of comfort, found in Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Imagine living in a world of peace, security & everlasting life. This is a promise from our Heavenly Father.##imported-begin##D. Spann##imported-end##

“ It is very sad when a life is taken but extra sad when someone who is in the prime of life has gone to rest in death. The scriptures bring me much comfort in this area, such as in John 5:28&29 where it speaks of all those in the memorial tombs will be raised up. When Jesus was on earth he was able to bring comfort to the family of his friend Lazarus at John 11: 24-26, he spoke of the codition Lazarus was in and that he would live again. I hope you too can find comfort in the bible like I have.##imported-begin##S. Leasure##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
