“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Even though this is a difficult time, you can find comfort in God's Word. Jesus promised at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the Memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.." Yes, your loved one has the opportunity to have a resurrection based on the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus. I hope knowing this Scripture brings some comfort.##imported-begin##A Robinson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. I worked with Dorothy at Mt Washington Pediatric Hospital. I started there as a new grad in 1986. I learned so much about sick babies from Dorothy. She ruled her room with an "iron fist", but she knew her babies better than anyone. If she was concerned about a baby's medical condition, I knew that I should be concerned as well.##imported-begin##Lee W. Cockrum##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family of Dorothy at this most difficult time. Yes death is certainly hard to contend with, because it hurts us so deeply to lose a loved one. Is this God's purpose for us? Not according to the bible. He never desired such pain for us, and yes he does have a wonderful purpose to put an end to this enemy that causes us so much pain. 1st Cor 15:26 tells us: As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. Through his son, Jesus, Jehovah God will bring the dead back to life to live forever in peaceful conditions. Acts 24:15 lovingly promises that there will be a resurrection. May you be comforted by this promise.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
