

Dorothy L. Taylor

April 20, 1912 - February 5, 2002

Dorothy Lillian Taylor, daughter of the late Andrew D. and Edna C. Taylor, was born on April 20, 1912 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She departed this life on February 5, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Dorothy received her education in the Philadelphia public school system. She held numerous jobs. She retired from Highgrades Pretzel and Potato Chip Factory after twenty-nine years of service. Dorothy married the former Richard R. Taylor, and out of this union one daughter was born, Doris. Dorothy made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She will always be known as the Hardy Lady (Candy). She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Doris B. Carter; one brother, Howard E. Taylor; six grandchildren, Cynthia L. Carter, Francine B. Allender, Nonie B. Matthews, Bertha L. Moore, Yolanda L. James and Brandon M. Carter; four grandchildren-in-law, twenty-one great-grandchildren, twenty-six great-great-grandchildren; two devoted nieces, Lois Downey and Carol Kurt; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
