

Dorothy Mae Ghee

January 9, 1938 - May 11, 2004

Dorothy Mae Ghee was born January 9, 1938 in Green Bay, Virginia to the late Wiley Ghee and Bertha Taylor Ghee. She was the oldest of four children. She departed this life suddenly on Tuesday, May 11, 2004. She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at the Second Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Green Bay, Virginia. Dorothy received her education in the Price Edward County Public School System. After completing twelfth grade, she came to Baltimore in search of work. She was first employed at Church Home Hospital for several years, later became employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital where she retired after thirty-eight years of service. She was also employed at St. James and St. John Catholic School in East Baltimore for over twenty years. She became good friends with many of the teachers and staff but shared a special bond with the principal, Mrs. King Cassell. Dorothy later joined Southern Baptist Church and was a faithful member. Her favorite hymns were, "I Am Redeemed," "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" and "May the Works I've Done Speak For Me." Her favorite passage of scripture is the 27th Psalm verse 1: "The Lord is my light and Salvation, whom should I fear." Her favorite saying is "Jesus keep me near the cross." To her loving daughter and precious nephews, take care of yourselves. Dorothy leaves to cherish her sweet and loving memory: her devoted daughter, LaTonya; two granddaughters, Essence and Jessica Rhodes; three loving sisters, Florence, Lucille and Mary; six nephews, Earl, Kevin, Kenneth Sr., Kenneth Jr., Derrick Sr. and Derrick Jr.; one niece, Kaiya a host of cousins, other relatives and friends including a devoted cousin, Mattie Jefferson; and special friend, Helen Cullough.

“ To Ms. Ghee's family, Please accept our deepest sympathy. Though no one can take away the pain and sorrow you feel now, may you find a measure of comfort from the hope found at Acts 24:15 that says, "and I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. Our family receives much comfort from the loving promises in the Bible. Isaiah 26:19 says-"Your dead ones will live.. They will rise up." I hope that these words are comforting to you also.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
