“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28, 29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ How hard it is to deal with the death of someone we love. It is the hardest thing for any family to have to go through. You have my deepest sympathy. Remember that our loving heavenly father knows your pain, and he is the great comforter who comforts us during all of our tribulations. So lean on him, and pour your heart to him, because he will get you through. Read and reflect on such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8 which promises that Jehovah God will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Also Daniel 12:2, and John 5:28,29 which lets us know that the many who are asleep in the dust will wake up, because they will hear the voice of Jehovah's son, Jesus, and they will come back to life from the memorial tombs. May these promises from Jehovah God, who never fails to fulfill his word, comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead. Isaiah 55:11##imported-begin##R
