

Dorothy Mae White

April 1, 1928 - February 16, 2005

Dorothy Mae White, the oldest daughter of the late Elizabeth and Bill Jordan, was born on April 1, 1928 in Suffolk, Virginia. She departed this life on February 16, 2005 after a lengthy illness. She received her education during her early years in Virginia before moving to Baltimore. Dorothy gave her life to Christ. She joined First Charity Baptist Church and attended until she became ill. Always pleasant, Dorothy was easy for anyone to talk to. Once you had a conversation with her, you would always look forward to seeing her again. She had a way to make you laugh with the way she expressed herself. She believed in family unity and tried very hard to show her family by example. She saw to it, as a single mother, that her children and grandchildren had a summer vacation, trips to the beaches and parks. Dorothy had eight children, leaving seven to mourn: (James Jordan preceded her in death) four sons, Joseph Farmer, Nathaniel Farmer, Ronald Farmer and Michael Farmer; three daughters, Gloria Richardson, Vernesser Farmer and Jeannette White; daughter-in-law, Barbara Jordan; fourteen grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren, six great-great-grandchildren; seven sisters, all from Virginia, Virtley, Eunice, Bessie, Maggie, Ethel, Louise and Rita; two brothers, William of Baltimore and Larry of Virginia (sister, Annie Mae and brother, Athol preceded her in death); three brothers-in-law, one sister-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and other relatives. Dorothy found a true friend here in Baltimore, who was there to the end, Mattie Brown. She also shared forty years with a special friend, Roland Pack, who recently preceded her in death.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
