

Dorothy Mae Young

June 18, 1952 - November 9, 2006

DOROTHY MAE SHEPPARD-YOUNG was born in Wilson, North Carolina on June 18, 1952 to the union of John and Doretha Sheppard. In her early years, she received her education in Washington, D.C. public schools. She graduated at the top of her class. Dorothy then attended Catonsville Community College where she was certified as a Nursing Assistant/Geriatric Nursing Assistant. She enjoyed doing private duty work. Dorothy Mae Sheppard met and fell in love with David Young, and they were united in Holy Matrimony. Dorothy and David Young had been together for thirty-three years. She was a wonderful wife who took care of her husband in all ways. Whenever he needed her she was there for him. As long as she had anything she made sure he had everything. Dorothy Mae Sheppard always has so much love to give to all her family and friends. She was the best wife anyone could have asked for and more. Dorothy was the type of woman who kept it real at all times. There was nothing fake about her. She always said what she meant and meant what she said. She loved her Heavenly Father, He led her to join St. Matthews United Methodist Church. She loved going to church to praise her Lord. Rev. Scott and the whole congregation made her a part of their family. She also loved gospel music and cooking. She is survived by: her mother, Doretha Sheppard; her husband, David Young; her two daughters, Angela Sheppard-Washington and Monica Sheppard-Fitzgerald Sr.; four great-aunts, Beatrice Sheppard, Daisey Dorden, Sally Willingham and Oralee Farmer; one great-uncle, Charlie Dorden; three sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law; two sons-in-law, Joseph Fitzgerald and Theodore Washington; and very many cousins, nieces and nephews and friends.

“ I would like to take this opportunity to express my deepest sorrow for the lost of Dorothy Mae. This must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort your family. Psalms 116:15 reads... Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is death of his loyal ones. Ecclesiastes 7:1 reads...A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one being born. Isaiah 25:8 reads...He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah has spoken it.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly promises that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much strength, comfort and hope from these loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
