“ May your family find a measure of comfort and solace in the hope the Bible holds out for our dear loved ones (John 5: 28, 29) and in the fact that God will soon bring an end to all things that are causes of sorrow. This includes old age, sickness and even death! Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am sure you have many fine memories of your loved one that will bring you a measure of comfort during these trying times. Our loving heavenly Father is the "God of all comfort" and he can and will help you through this difficult time because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your family.

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. These things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your loved one in death. I am so sorry to learn of your loss. In these troubled times, we face many storms; some we think we will never recover from. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - such "storms" attack all of us at one time or another, and we cannot avoid them. Having faith (James 1:3) is one key to having strength and enduring such onslaughts. Also, another key is hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13), there is the hope of the resurrection (John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens grief. It helps us to endure. You can find more encouraging Scriptures @www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.

Dear family and friends of Dorothy L. March:

I am truly sorry for your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I am truly sorry for your loss, and I pray this message brings you much comfort.

To the March Family!

We, the former co-workers of Dorothy (Dot) March would like to extend out heartfelt sympathy to your family. It's hard at times like these to sufficiently express in words what our hearts truly convey but know that we share in your loss and desire God's comfort and peace. May He strengthen your family from this time forward. Let Him be your guiding force in all that you do. Dot was a strong woman and she fought a good fight.

Remember, "Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning." Thinking of you all.

Peace and blessings!
