

Dorothy Marie Fauntleroy

October 1, 1926 - August 24, 2009

DOROTHY MARIE FAUNTLEROY was born October 1, 1926 in Littleton, North Carolina to the late Gid Hugh Williams, Jr. and Edith Malone Baker (Williams). Dorothy, who was affectionately known as “Dot,” was one of seven children. Five preceded her in death, Virginia Bell, Claude Hugh, Jesse Burma, Mary Neason and Herbert Williams. Dot was called home August 24, 2009 after a brief illness. Dot went to school in North Carolina. After the death of her parents, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she completed here education. She met and married the late John T. Fauntleroy. There were no children from this union, but there were plenty of nieces and nephews for them to love and they did. Dot was an avid reader. There were bibles spread throughout her home. It appears her favorite bible passage was Psalm 26. She also kept Malcolm X’s autobiography in her bedroom. Dot was a very straight forward person and did not mince words. She would give you her opinion whether you wanted it or not-that was just her way. She also had a kind and gentle side reserved especially for her family. She’d give you the shirt off her back if you needed it. She leaves to mourn: one sister, Mamie Rhodes; sisters-in-law, Betty, Blanche and Lesmine; brother-in-law, Henry Brice; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Her nephew Ongatu-Ibrahima, niece Wendy and great-nice Tracey cared for her in her final days.

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy Marie Fauntleroy

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family of Ms. Fauntleroy, may you find comfort in knowing that Jehovah God has promised to "wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Revelation 21: 3,4##imported-begin##Marilynn Wright##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences for your loss. Although I didn't personally know Dorothy, I feel so bad for people when they lose a loved one, and I would like to offer some words of comfort and encouragement. One day soon God promises that we will no longer be burying our loved ones, because he promises an end to all sorrow, sickness, and death. Rev 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Yes family the things we are going through now will soon pass away. Jehovah cares so deeply about us, and it was never his purpose for us to suffer and die. This is why he promises at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." By means of the ransom price paid by his son Jesus, all of the dead in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come back to life. John 5:28,29. May Jehovah comfort you and your family, and may his wonderful promises help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R
Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM