“But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

“Family and friends of Dorothy, so sorry to hear about loss. May you have comfort that we have the promise from God at Revelations 21 :4 which says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more". What a comforting thought. My prayers are with you and your family.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ I don't think of her as gone away, her journey's just begun. "Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one." Farewell too soon.

I just heard the sad news, Dot was like a sister to me, and I will miss her. I am saying a prayer of peace for her family and friends. God needed her, and now we all have another angel to watch over us.
