

Dorothy Louise Myers

March 25, 1920 - December 5, 2015

DOROTHY LOUISE MYERS was born on March 25, 1920 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Norman Jacobs and Fannie Bullock.

She attended Buchanan Elementary school in her youth and at the age of eleven years old she accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her savior. She was baptized by the late Henry Randolph and joined the Bethlehem Baptist Church where she was a member of the youth choir for a number of years.

In 1943, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland and became a member of Southern Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Grant until 1956. From there, she moved her membership to Mount Pleasant Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Isaac L. Williams who went to be with the lord in 1969. Then Reverend Bishop Clifford M. Johnson became pastor, whom she loved, where she was a member until her passing. She was on the senior Choir No. 1, a member of the Missionary Society and in 2006 she joined the Silver Saints.

In 1983 she retired from Seidman Reality where she worked for over twenty years.

The Golden Girls is what we called Martha Moore, Viola Lewis, and Dorothy Myers. They took numerous trips and had many laughs together...and now taking trips together again.

On December 5, 2015, Dorothy Louise Myers went to be with the Lord.

She leaves to mourn: goddaughter, Ava Towe (Charles); grand godchildren, Charles, Ayana, Aniya and Amanda; adopted son, Nelson Moore and the entire Moore family; life long friends, Catherine Peay, Louise Triplet and Barbara Butler who cared for her in the last days; and a host of other relatives and friends.
