

Dorothy P. Delaware

April 13, 1945 - December 15, 2002

Dorothy Patricia Delaware, daughter of the late Mary and Herman Jones, was born April 13, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 15, 2002 after a lengthy illness. On October 2, 1964, she married the late Roland Delaware. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. She was employed in Housekeeping at Loyola College for several years. She faithfully attended the Church of Blessed Sacrament. She was a very loving aunt/mother to a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. She loved to raise and baby-sit children and there were many. She always had a loving smile and encouraging word for everyone that she came in contact with. She always talked about the wonderful master. Patricia lived her life to the fullest, never missing a holiday in getting the family together. Her mission in life was that no child should go without, by making every day special for any and every child. She leaves to cherish in her memory: her brother, James Jones, three sister-in-laws, Phyllis Moore, Sweetie Delaware, and Debbie Jones, two brother-in-laws, Joseph Nolan and Brian Delaware, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. Special thanks, to her niece Marcia Dean for caring for her during her time of illness. One brother Herman Jones and three sisters, Gretta Brewton, Bernadine Dean, and Coraline Nolan preceded her in death.
