

Dorothy Parker

May 5, 1960 - February 10, 2007

DOROTHY PARKER, beloved daughter of Sylvia H. Sorrell and the late George Parker was born on May 5, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. Dorothy began her walk down life's long highway. On Saturday, February 10, 2007, she saw a sign that read, "Heaven's Grocery Store." As she got a little closer, the door opened wide and when she came to herself, she was standing inside. She received her education at Baltimore City Public School System. Dorothy was known to family as Dottie, and Dottie was known for her understanding, bluntness and sense of style. Dottie worked as a dispatcher at Diamond Cab Company, Never On Sunday Restaurant, Baltimore Convention Center and later in life Dottie served as a peer counselor at Project Place all in the City of Baltimore. Dottie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She enjoyed working for Project Place helping people that were just like her. She tried to show them the positive side of life and to never give up. Dottie leaves to mourn her passing: her only child, Dominique S. Coleman; her mother, Sylvia H. Sorrell, three sisters, Jean Keaton, Sylvia Wheeler and Angela Sorrell; two brothers, Ricky Parker and Tyrone Sorrell; seven grandchildren, Diamond, Damonte, Deonte, Darius, Donyell, Damyus and Dayanna; a loving, devoted best friend, William Harris; eight nieces, three nephews and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

“ It's not a day that goes by I don't think of you. I miss you so much. Some days I find myself talking to you like you in the room with me, others it's just memories and thoughts that cross my mind. This morning I woke up feeling like it's so much I needed to tell you still. As I do when I talk to you but today was different today I'm emotional today was one of those days that it hits you that you being gone is something I have learned to accept but it don't get better for me. That emptiness never gets filled, Ma, I'm not ok without you ,yes I manage cause I have no choice but that piece of my heart will forever be missing. Ma I will never feel again and it hurts. ☐Boont

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, “As the enemy death, is to be brought to nothing.” God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes.” May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is truly a heartbreaking event for the family and friends. It is truly hurtful to us all. Many wonder why people lived so many years during bible times, such as Methusaleh who lived to be 969 years old, which helps us to appreciate that God really meant for us to live forever. Romans 6,23 tells us, The wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord. So everlasting life is a gift from God that the dead will receive in Gods due time. John5,28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out of those tombs. May those bible promises bring comfort to your family at this time, and in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
