

Dorothy M. Peoples

February 1, 1939 - July 3, 2017

Dorothy Mae Peoples, daughter of the late Samuel Peoples and Ida Pettigrew Peoples was born February 1, 1939 in Timmonsville, South Carolina. She departed this life on July 3, 2017.

She received her education in Baltimore where she graduated from Frederick Douglass High School at the age of fifteen. She attended Morgan State University where she received a Bachelor of Science Degree. Next she attended the University of Michigan where she received a Master of Science in Mathematics.

She volunteered for the Peace Corp where she taught in Malaysia. She began her career with the Federal Government Department of the Navy. She then moved to the Department of the Army. She retired from the Department of the Army at Aberdeen Proving Ground on June 4, 2004.

She greatly enjoyed traveling. She visited places in North America, South America, Europe, Asia, and Australia. She also enjoyed going to plays and concerts. She was very supportive of her family and would take them on exotic, all-expense paid trips.

She leaves to mourn: two sisters, Patricia and Shelley; two brothers, Curtis and Ernest; two nephews, Brandon and Gregory; two brothers-in-law, Harold and James and a host of relatives and friends.
