

Dorothy Mae Phillips

November 4, 1929 - February 16, 2011

DOROTHY MAE PHILLIPS, daughter of the late Willie and Gertrude Robinson, was born on November 4, 1929 in Warren County, North Carolina. She was the youngest of three children. After a lengthy and progressive illness, she departed this life on February 16, 2011.

Dorothy Mae graduated from the Warren County Public School system. It was during this time that she met the love of her life, Elbert Phillips. They married on June 4, 1949. Je hovah's blessed this union with six children who loved her dearly. After studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, she recognized that this was the truth. Dorothy dedicated her life to Jehovah and symbolized it through water baptism on January 14, 1962. She was active in the ministry until her illness prevented her from continuing in the public preaching work. Many who knew her remember Dorothy for her humbleness, kindness and "Knuckle sandwiches. "She loved interacting with children and young people. Dorothy was a faithful and loyal servant of Jehovah until her passing.

Dorothy was a devoted wife and mother who enjoyed going on cruises with her husband and sister-in-law. She also enjoyed fishing, card games, sewing, and shopping. She had a witty expression for every occasion. Dorothy had a unique sense of style, fashion and grace. To her family, Dorothy was a loving wife and mother, great cook, and wonderful homemaker with a generous, playing and caring spirit.

She leaves to mourn her passing her loving husband, Elbert Phillips; three daughters, Veronica C. Brewington, Nina L. Johnson and Denise Anthony; three sons, Tony R. Phillips, Jamie N. Phillips and El Le'Vento Phillips; son-in-law, Michael C. Brewington and Roosevelt Anthony; daughters-in-law, Valeria K. Phillips and Kelly M. Phillips; one sister, Katie Virginia Stewart; one sister-in-law, Marie Downtin; one brother-in-law, Calvin Phillips; twenty grandchildren, thirteen great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her brother Noel Robinson; one grandson, Mark Craig Brewington and one great grandson, Jarred Terell Rice.

“ She was so wonderful even when we all would be afraid to go up the stairs in front of her because we knew she would poke us in the hind parts even when she said she wouldn't. I cannot wait to see her again. In her words, "dont stay long iin nary place".

“ My grandmother was truly a wonderful person. She was sweet, loving and generous. She was always kind and playful with me when I was a child. And she never changed. I will sorely miss your presence in my life and I look forward to seeing you again soon in paradise! I love you very much!
