

Dorothy June Pinder

June 21, 1934 - September 20, 2015

DOROTHY JUNE PINDER, daughter of the late Doc and Essie Rollins, was born on June 21, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was one of six children, she departed this life on September 20, 2015, after a lengthy illness.

Dorothy grew up in Cottage Grove, where she received her education. She worked as a domestic worker. She joined in holy matrimony to Clarence Pinder on April 5, 1953, who preceded her in death. Out of this union they had three children. Dorothy accepted Christ at a very young age. She later joined Shiloh CC Church, where she was a faithful usher. In 1997, she joined the Love Crown Christian Light Church, where she was a faithful member and usher until her illness. Dorothy loved her children, cooking, her church music and going to church until her illness.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Henry Goynes and Reginald Pinder; daughter, Vonda Brown; grandson, Terrell Goynes; two daughters in law, Barbara Goynes and Bernice Pinder ; brother in law, Charles Rollins; sister in law, Emma Richardson; nieces and nephews; two step grandchildren, Yvette Jones and Aubrey Cates; and a host of other relatives and friends.
