

Dorothy Gray Pittman

March 16, 1931 - August 16, 2012

Dorothy Pittman was born on March 18, 1931, to Parthenia and Haywood. At an early age, her mother, the late Parthenia Fletcher brought her to Baltimore, Maryland, where she was educated through the Baltimore City School system. She departed this life on August 16, 2012, following a lengthy illness.

Dorothy soon exhibited many talents and received her Associate of Arts degree from the Community College of Baltimore City. She was employed by the federal government for most of her life and retired from the Social Security Administration in the 1990's. Once retired, Dorothy began to more fully care for her ailing mother.

Dorothy was a friend to all who knew her and will surely be missed by them all. She enjoyed gardening, reading, and holding many long telephone conversations with her closest friends. She rarely missed sending cards and gifts to family members on special occasions and proudly displayed the many cards she received on her birthday and other occasions.

Dorothy was a devoted daughter, a good and loyal friend, and a wonderful niece and cousin of her family. Her quiet and demure attitude helped her retain her dignity during her time of illness and discomfort.

She leaves to mourn: Helen Torrence, a close friend for most of their lives,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
