

Dorothy M Richardson

November 1, 1920 - December 7, 2015

Dorothy Mae Richardson, the daughter of the late Allen and Louise Murray, was born on November 1, 1920 in Wilmington, Delaware. On Monday, December 7, 2015, Dorothy quietly and serenely transitioned from Earth to Glory while being treated at Northwest Hospital Seasons Hospice in Randallstown, Maryland. She took her wings and flew to her celestial home.

Dorothy was educated in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania area. Her Christian education was obtained during her youth, growing up, with parents who established a Christian Foundation.

Dorothy's employment career included positions at Scott Paper Company and the War Plant while living in Pennsylvania.

in 1943, Dorothy met the love of her life, Carlton L. Richardson and was united in holy matrimony on April 18, 1944. They relocated to Queens, New York for a number of years before moving to the Maryland area to care for her beloved Aunt Hennie. They continued their lifelong religious affiliations with the A.M.E. Church and united with Union Bethel A.M.E. Church in Randallstown, MD in 1988. Prior to joining Union Bethel, the Richardsons were members of Rush temple A.M.E. where Rev. Gittens was the pastor. Dorothy was a very active member, serving on the Usher Board, The Pastor's Aid and the Parsonage Club. She was a very proud usher and considered all of the ushers as "her children".

Dorothy was preceded in death by: her loving husband of fifty-two years, Carlton; son, Leslie Lewis, Sr; granddaughter, LaFaithia Lewis; and grandson, Leslie Lewis, Jr.

Family members left to praise her life and to mourn her passing are: one brother, Wallace Gibson of Baltimore, MD; one granddaughter, Robyn McCray of Columbia, S.C.; three step grandchildren, Derek, Denay, and Devin; one great-grandson, Nasir; and a host of other relatives and friends. She held a very special place in her heart for many, but her Eldersburg, MD adopted family, Steve and Kim Evans and their daughters were especially loved.
