“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the Stith family. As time goes on the pain of losing our loved ones lessens a bit, but we never forget them, because losing a loved one is the toughest thing we go through in life, and it's something that we can never get used to. It's a joy to know though that God has something better in store for us, because he has promised an end to sickness and death forever. Isaiah 33:24, Isaiah 25:8. Indeed he will swallow up death forever, and as Acts 24:15 lets us know, he will ressurect those who have died. One day they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those memorial tombs. May that promise bring much comfort and joy to your hearts as you await that glorious day.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Thank God for a truthful spirit. Ms. Stith helped me overcome smoking and encouraged a healthier outlook on life - physically and spiritually. She was never afraid to be honest, even if it wasn't easy! May God be pleased with your soul! To the family, please continue to look to the Christ who sustained her for your peace and comfort. God bless.##imported-begin##Welforette Adkins Blount##imported-end##
