“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.

“ To the Family of Dorothy Mae Talley:

I wanted to express my condolences to you on the loss of your dear loved one. This is such a hurtful thing. Just remember that God loves us and does not want us to be unhappy. He has set forth promises in the bible to give us comfort and hope. One of them is found at Revelation 21:4. There it says that 'there will be no more sickness, death or pain. It also says at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that the 'last enemy death is to be brought to nothing'. What a loving promise.. Well I hope that these scriptures have been comforting to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.

“ Please take solace in knowing God has already made provision to awaken dear Dorothy from sleep. The Bible tell us this Resurrection will be to Eternal life, on a Paradise earth (Mark5:38-43, Psalms 37:11,29). May the joy of this wonderful promise as well as your treasured memories of Dorothy bring you much comfort. Our Heavenly Father always keeps His promises (Titus 1:2). My sincerest sympathy, Mrs. D.
