

Dorothy Clyburn Williams

February 15, 1929 - July 28, 2010

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. Ecclesiastes 3:1

Our beloved, Mrs. Dorothy C. Williams was born in Kershaw, South Carolina on February 15, 1929 to Etta B. Clyburn and James L. Catoe Sr. She would later travel to Richmond, Virginia where she met and married the late James E. Williams Sr. They had three children to whom Dorothy was a devoted mother. She was persistent at working and spent most of those years in healthcare and clothing production. She was an extremely kind hearted person who always sought to help others. She delayed starting a family with her husband for many years so that she could first raise and secure a good life for two of six children belonging to her then deceased sister. Her examples of love and compassion started at a young age and continued throughout her life. She was a tremendous gift from God to whom she loved and worshiped.

She'll be truly missed and never forgotten. She leaves to mourn her passing a devoted and loving daughter, Deborah Williams (Junnie); two sons, James Jr. and Ozell Williams; two grandchildren, Asia Williams and Deon Williams; two sisters, Dorothy Washington and Olive Floyd; one brother, James Catoe Jr. (Debbie); a devoted cousin, Nellie Anderson; devoted friend, Lisa Martin; a host of other relatives and friends.

“To part with one so kind,
So full of hope and love,
Who’s spirit was one to absorb,
She grew tired on this Earth
and went away to find her place with the Lord.”

“ Dorothy was such a treasure. She took such wonderful care of my Grandma Marks. Many days I would bring my three young children over to visit their great-grandma, and Dorothy helped Grandma "love on the children". Though the kids are grown now(26, 28, and 30), and Grandma and Dorothy are no longer with us, their sweet memories will be with us forever. God bless.
