

Douglas E. Christian

November 4, 1958 - December 29, 2021

Douglas Everetter Christian, Jr., affectionately known as Doogie, son of the late Douglas E. Christian, Sr. and the late Ruth H. T. Christian, was born November 4, 1958 in Baltimore City. He was Called to glory on December 29, 2021. Douglas was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended Carver High where he was a stellar Defensive Lineman. Later he attended Baltimore City Community College where he received Certificates of Training in the areas of information technology, basic skills, and transportation.

Douglas served in the United States Army as a cook. After almost three years of service, he was honorably discharged. Douglas held a variety of positions during his career. Some of his accomplishments were custodian, technician for the City of Annapolis, and Chauffeur for the Mayors Office. Douglas was preceded in death by his former wife, Evelyn A. Whye, his brother, Charlie E. Christian, and his sister, Esther Carr. Douglas will be remembered for his loving spirit and uproarious laughter. He enjoyed a variety of music and when he sang, it made you smile.

While he did not have children, he enjoyed teaching his nieces, nephews, and cousins how to play football, basketball, baseball, “trolls in the woods” and the infamous “Buck-Buck Competition.” A true favorite uncle, cousin, and friend to them all. Douglas is survived by his stepchildren Evelyn Nash and Robert

Nash; his siblings, Nathaniel Christian (Hermalinda), Naomi Christian, Michael Christian (Sharon), Janice Christian, and Theresa Davis; one aunt, Hattie Harris, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Douglas (Dougie) was the kindest person I ever met. He befriended people who didnt deserve it. If he considered you a friend he would do whatever he could for you. I will miss him always.

“ Epitaph by Merrit Malloy
When I die, give what's left of me away
To children and old people who wait to die.
If you need to cry,
Cry for your brother and sister
Walking the street beside you.
And when you need me,
Put your arms around anyone and
Give them what you need to give to me.
I want to leave you something,
Something better than words or sounds.
Look for me in the people I've known or loved.
If you cannot give me away,
At least let me live in your eyes,
And not in your mind.
You can love me most
By letting hands touch hands,
By letting hearts touch hearts,
And by letting go of
Spirits who need to be free.
Love does not die, bodies do.
So, when all that's left of me is love,
Give me away.
