

Douglas Monroe Lee

April 27, 1939 - November 1, 2011

Today, we celebrate the homegoing for one of God's most faithful servants, Douglas Monroe Lee. On April 27, 1939, God blessed India Carter Lee and Earnest Lee with a baby boy whom they named Douglas. He was affectionately called Doug throughout his lifetime.

Doug attended Richmond Public Schools and was among the 1957 graduating class of Armstrong High School. After graduation, Doug joined the Air Force for several years. He was employed with the United States Post Office and Philip Morris, USA, where he retired.

In his early years, he accepted Christ and rededicated his life in his later years. He was a faithful member of Trinity Baptist Church.

Doug enjoyed spending time with his family, playing golf and fishing. He was a very dedicated Washington Redskins fan and everyone knew it. He was a member of the PM 90's Retirement Club, the Hooksetters Fishing Club and for many years, the Railroad Club. Within these clubs he served as an officer.

Throughout his life, Doug understood the importance of love, the rewards of joy; and the fulfillment of living life to the fullest. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. At times, Doug would put others needs before his own.

Doug transitioned into his eternal life on November 1, 2011. He never complained throughout his courageous battle. He was preceded in death by his father, Earnest Earl Lee; mother India Lee Whirley; sisters, Mary Elizabeth Edwards and India Pearl Hammond; brother, Stanley Lee and several relatives who meant so much to him.

Douglas Monroe Lee's life on earth is over, but memories will be cherished forever. He is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Rosa N. Lee; one daughter, Michele Miller-Smith (Ronald); two sons, Ramon Lee and Oteriah Lee (LaTanya); six grandchildren, Trevon L. and Trenton M. Miller, Oteriah II and Trinity Lee, Shakia N. and Jaron M. Smith; two great grandchildren, Tyson L. Miller and Cameron R. Jones; three sisters, Earnestine Johnson, Luvada G. Winston and Lola Lee; one brother, Theodore Lee; three sisters-in-law, Princess Lee, Evelyn Lee and Eva Robinson; two brothers-in-law, Lawrence Winston and James Minor; godniece and nephew, Darlene Abrams and Morris "Country" Robinson, Sr., stick partner, Jerome Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends, all of whom held a special place in his heart.

Cemetery Details

Oakwood Cemetery

3101 Nine Mile Road
Richmond, VA 23223

Previous Events

Public Viewing

NOV 4. 9:00 AM - 8:00 PM (ET)

March Funeral Home-Laburnum Chapel
Richmond, VA 23222

Service

NOV 5. 11:00 AM (ET)

Trinity Baptist Church-Richmond
2811 Fendall Ave
Richmond, VA 23222

Tribute Wall

“ Douglas Monroe Lee

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

---

Ms Springer - November 07, 2011 at 04:44 AM

AT

“ Although we were not able to join the family today in celebrating the life of Douglas Lee, we are there in spirit. Aunt Rose, please know that the Terry family is praying for you. I have many fond memories of my Uncle Douglas.

My three greatest memories were how he'd come over my Nanny's (Liz) house on Saturdays to bring her Chinese food. Oh how her face would light up when she saw her Doug Lee. Secondly, after my dad passed, Uncle Douglas leaned over to my mom (Tammy) and said, "If you need anything baby call your Uncle Douglas, you hear!" Lastly, when we traveled back to Richmond and I had an opportunity to preach, Uncle Douglas and you were always there. Every time I was with or near him, he always showed love.

Rest assured, that Earth has no pain that Heaven can't bear. I know that as Uncle Douglas sleeps, the same God whom he believed in, promises that we will meet again. This is a truth we can hold to.

With love and respect,

Tony, Yolanda, Jasmin and Jayla

---

Antonio Terry - November 05, 2011 at 11:36 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

---

March Funeral Homes - November 03, 2011 at 01:36 PM