

Douglas Maurice Liggons

August 12, 1965 - February 11, 2010

To know Douglas "Doug" Maurice Liggons was to love him. He made everyone he came in contact with laugh with his many jokes. He had a great sense of humor, was a determined and hard worker, proud and devoted father, loving son and brother and a loyal friend. On February 11, 2010, Doug went home to be with the Lord. Doug was born on August 12, 1965 in Richmond, Virginia. He was a graduate of Highland Springs High School Class of 1983. After graduation, Doug joined the United States Marine Corp. receiving an Honorable Discharge upon completion of his enlistment. He accepted Christ through baptism at St. Paul's Baptist Church in 1996. In 1997, Doug's desire was to relocate to Nashville, Tennessee, where he has resided for the last thirteen years. Ten of those years were spent working for the Metropolitan Transit Authority, where he functioned as the Vice President of the labor union. Doug was preceded in death by his grandmother, Helen Liggons and uncle Rodney Greg Liggons. He leaves to cherish his memory loving and devoted parents, Jane Paulette and Thomas A. Haskins, Sr.; daughters, Kiara Liggons (Richmond, VA) and Kenya Liggons (Nashville, TN); brothers, Tony Liggons (Carleen) and Thomas Haskins, Jr. (Monika); grandmother, Evelyn Watson; one great-aunt, Rosa Smith; a host of family and friends, among them devoted, Williannette (Peaches) Sheppard, William and John McLemore, Carolyn Smith, Lazetta Boone (Nashville, TN), Dajuan Thompson (Nashville, TN), Gerry Cloyd (Clarksville, TN) and Charles Branch (Nashville, TN).

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Douglas Maurice Liggons. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time . Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy. I did not know Douglas but I know the sorrow and grief that comes with losing a loved one to death. Please be assured that very soon this sorrow will no longer exist. God promises that "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3,4) and He provides the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death. As we await the wonderful fulfillment of this promise, may you continue to find comfort, not only in your precious memories, but also from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." “ I would like to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the entire family of the late Douglas Maurice Liggons. I met Doug while he was driving for MTA in Nashville, shortly after his move here. I have never met a more humorous or more funny person in all my life. Doug would call me sometimes and we would literally laugh for hours. I nicknamed him CNN because he always had all the news and knew about everything that was going on everywhere. I knew Doug as a very hard working man who also loved his two girls with all his heart. Remember that your loss is heaven's gain, and "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". God Bless each of you. Keep the Faith.##imported-begin##Marcia Rambert##imported-end##
