

Douglas McCoy Brooks

June 27, 1956 - February 15, 2010

Douglas McCoy Brooks beloved son of the late Catherine Haynes and Maxwell Jeter was born June 27, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. One of five children, he departed this life February 22, 2010 after a lengthy illness. Douglas was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed by the H&S Huber & Son Landscaping Company. Bug, as he was affectionately known enjoyed spending time with his family and friends particularly with his special nieces Marquette Harrison & Nya Davis, and his closest cousin, more like a brother, Junior Hurt. Bug, although quiet at times, he always never seemed to amaze others with a joke or a laugh. He made many friends who enjoyed and admired his companionship. Bug quietly went home to rest in peace with the Lord. Those who knew Douglas, knew he was a loving father, devoted brother, lovable uncle, affectionate nephew, caring cousin, and good friend. His memories as a thoughtful person will never cease. The recollections of the fusses, fights, and support that he gave will always be cherished by his sisters and brother. Everyone in the family will have a missing place in their hearts that will be filled with the wonderful times that was shared with him. Douglas leaves to cherish fond memories of him: Fiance Gloria Anderson, (AKA Boo), two sons Steven Marshall and Antoine Brooks, one daughter Angelina Brooks, three sisters Phyllis Hurt, Joanne Jeter, and Marietta Jeter, one brother Cecil Jeter, one step brother Joseph Conley, two sister in-laws Evette Jeter and Hope Dunbar Smith, one brother in-law Wendell Buie, one uncle, James Hurt, two aunts, Syveria McLean and Doreen Hurt, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ *I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Douglas McCoy Brooks. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
