

Douglas H. Wright

May 15, 1923 - August 14, 2011

DOUGLAS H. WRIGHT, affectionately called “Tubs”, quietly passed away on August 14, 2011. Douglas was born to the late Hillary Wright and Sophia Gunther on May 15, 1923 in Eden, MD.

He attended the Baltimore City School System. After high school, he joined the United States Army. After being discharged from the Army, he became a professional roofer and carpenter. Mr. Tubs enjoyed fixing lawn movers and radios. He would always say “it’s hard, but it’s fair.”

He was predeceased by his wife, Emma, his son, Steven, two sisters, Hilda Gaither and Betty Mae Weaver, and a loving companion, Geneva Grant.

Douglas leaves to mourn: his nephews and nieces, Calvin Gaither, Thomas Weaver, Gloria Washington and Patricia Allen; cousin, Lottie Bivens; extended family, Padwa Johnson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am a Bible student extending my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May you cherish the memories you have and keep it in your heart.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

You have my deeest symphathy.
