

Douglass Melvin

August 2, 1931 - April 16, 2005

Douglas Melvin, Sr., "Doug", son of the late Thomas and Edna Melvin, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 2, 1931. He departed this life on April 16, 2005 following a brief illness at the Stella Maris Hospice at Mercy Hospital. Douglas received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He enlisted in the United States Army in February 1952 and was honorably discharged in January 1954. He later worked for Koppers Foundry. He retired from Flynn & Emrich but found retirement to be boring, so he went back to work taking a job at City Wide Bus Company as a bus driver. In July 1977, he married the former Frances Berry, who preceded him in death. Their union brought together five children: Douglas Jr., Sandra, Allen, Brian and Tyrone. Douglas was well liked by all that he came in contact with. His big smile, baritone voice and laid back manner had a way of winning people over. His favorite response to "Hey, Doug!" was, "That be me!" His passion was playing the poker machine and cards. He will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: his son, Douglas Jr.; daughter, Sandra; sons, Allen, Brian and Tyrone preceded him in death; one brother, Earl Melvin; two sisters-in-law, Gladys Berry and Gwendolyn Melvin; two brothers-in-law, two daughters-in-law, eleven grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Douglass Melvin

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. John 5:28,29 says-
"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May this divinely inspired promise give you comfort and peace.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM