

Dovie McCann

February 14, 1917 - January 17, 2003

Dovie Dunston McCann, the daughter of the late Mable Dunston Hughlett and Clarence Dunston, was born on February 14, 1917 in Gulfport, Mississippi. She departed this life to meet her reward on Friday, January 17, 2003 after a lengthy illness. When Dovie was a young girl, the family moved from Gulfport to Baltimore, where Dovie attended public schools. She accepted Christ at an early age at Fulton Baptist Church and later moved her membership to Douglas Memorial Community Church at which she maintained her membership until her death. She met and married Glasco McCann who preceded her in death. Most of her working life was spent as a waitress and barmaid. The club customers enjoyed her talents as a mixologist as well as her humor and friendliness. A ten-year resident at Forest Haven Convalescent and Nursing Home, Dovie was an active participant in the activities at the home. She enjoyed Bingo, modeled in fashion shows and participated in the Sunshine Club. When her health began to decline, she still continued to be as active as her health allowed. Dovie was a fun-loving, generous, and caring person who in her own words, loved to “talk trash.” Since she had no children of her own, she deeply loved her nieces Brenda and Linda, her nephew, Douglas and her great-nephews, Quinton and Leon. The family can never adequately thank the very kind and efficient caretakers and Evercare nurses for their expert and compassionate care. The family also thanks the kind minister at the home who visited Dovie and other patients as well as the church members who visited her and sent cards. Dovie leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved sister, Doretha Foster; nieces, Brenda Haywood and Linda Bryant; her nephew, Douglas Bryant; her great-nephews, Quinton and Leon Bryant; and a host of friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
