

Duane Spruill

April 28, 1978 - December 14, 2009

DUANE KEVIN SPRUILL JR., son of Yvonne Bryant and the late Duane Spruill Sr., was born on April 28, 1978. He was called to his Heavenly home from Bayview Hospital on December 14, 2009 at 6:00 p.m. Duane was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System. He received his diploma from Mergenthaler Vocational-Technical High School in 1996. There he participated in the electrical trade and also played football for a short period of time. Since his childhood he had an extreme fascination with cars. As an adult, he loved to test drive different cars just for the fun of it. Duane also loved children, computers, movies and "yes, yes he loved music." He was a jack-of-all-trades, always trying different fields. Prior to his death, he often spoke of his aspirations to become a nurse. Duane was a very kind individual. To know him was to truly know an angel walking on earth. He had a big heart and was known for looking out for family and friends at the drop of a dime. He was a resourceful man. If you needed something done and he couldn't do it himself, he always knew someone who could. Duane was never one to argue, fuss or fight. All of his loved ones can attest to his cool, calm and collected demeanor. He was known to all for his enlightening smile and light chuckles. He was never a man of many words, but when he spoke you listened. His presence was always felt. On September 15, 2009, Duane had the gastric bypass surgery. He lost over 100 pounds, which was a major goal for him. He was so happy with his weight loss. After much struggle with different health issues, Duane was called home but he was a true fighter until the end. Duane leaves to mourn: his loving parents, Yvonne and John Bryant Jr.; five brothers, Maurice Thomas, John Bryant III, Eric Bryant and Christopher and Kevin Spruill; two sisters, Joyce Bryant and Tiffini Spruill; sister-in-law, LaShawnda Thomas; brother-in-law, Merson Bartlett; four great-aunts, one great-uncles, nine uncles, six aunts, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort in knowing what Jesus himself said, 'all those in the graves will hear my voice and come out (John 5:28-30)'.

“ To The Family of Duane Spruill: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. It seems unfair that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of someone we love. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).
