

Dulcy D. Coffey

July 24, 1963 - July 12, 2003

Dulcy Delores Coffey, daughter of Delores Elizabeth Watkins and the late James William Coffey, was born July 24, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 12, 2003 after a lengthy illness. After receiving her education at Mergenthaler Vocational Technical School in Baltimore, she attended Catonsville Community College and Coppin State College. Legg Mason employed Dulcy for the last eighteen years. Her last position being Annuity Business Coordinator, where she helped the company grow over one million dollars strong. She attended New Shiloh Christian Community Church where she was baptized in July of 2001. Dulcy made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted mother. Her true love was her children and she was looking forward to the expectancy of her first grandchild. She was also a wonderful aunt to her niece and nephews and adored having them around. She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Tia Lipscomb; one son, Richard Hardy Jr.; mother, Delores Watkins; three brothers, James Rogers, Norman and Guy Coffey; one sister, Nancy Roye; a very devoted companion, Richard Hardy Sr.; one niece, one nephew, one great-nephew; one sister-in-law, four uncles, three aunts, and a host of other relatives and friends.
