

Dwanise Shantel Wheatley

July 29, 1984 - June 1, 2020

Dwanise S. Wheatley was born on July 29, 1984 to Dwayne Hilton Wheatley Sr., and the late Margie “Niecy” Lawson. She departed this life on Monday, June 1, 2020.

Dwanise graduated from Forest Park High School in 2002. Following high school she attended Coppin State University, and with determination and resilience landed a position at the Social Security Administration.

Dwanise possessed an inspiring will to live. She loved life and experienced as much living as she could during her time on earth. Dwanise’s smile would light up a room. To know her smile is also to know her birthmark.

Dwanise loved her family and her family loved her. The joys of her life were her two sons, Kameran the late Ahmad Wheatley. She adored her brothers, and cousins were her best friends. She was a favorite of her aunts and uncles. Dwanise shared a very special bond with her father. She was the definition of a daddy’s girl. #girldad!

Dwanise leaves to celebrate her life: son, Kameran; father, Dwayne Sr.; brothers Alex (Tanika) and Dwayne Jr. (Kalaria); nieces Alayna, Autumn, London, Jordyn, and Egypt; and a host aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family; and best friend Stacy.
