

Dwayne Devon Thornton

December 14, 1959 - August 30, 2004

Dwayne D. Thornton, son of the late Eustace and Effie Thornton, was born on December 14, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of eleven children. Two brothers, Ellwood and William Thornton and one sister, Mender Montgomery preceded him in death. He departed this life on August 21, 2004 after a lengthy illness. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He completed his education at Job Corps in Woodstock, Maryland where he also learned and mastered the trades of carpentry and bricklaying. Upon completion of Job Corps, he immediately began working with his Dad who upon his retirement worked in the neighborhood where he resided making repairs and providing home improvement services for family, neighbors and friends. Dwayne was a very hard worker and was always eager to find work. He held several jobs in the City with various corporations: Rockland Industries, Eddie's Supermarket and Abacus Corporation. Dwayne, whom his family and friends lovingly referred to as "Dodie," was very skilled with his hands; family members would call him whenever they needed help with household and home improvement tasks. "Dodie's" quiet, loving, kind and generous spirit was admired by all who encountered him. He enjoyed spending quality time with his family and he especially loved the kids. He made friends wherever he went and when in pain, he never complained. He leaves to mourn: his devoted friend, Mildred Cornish; one son, Dwayne Thornton Jr.; one daughter, Marja Thornton; one grandson, Tavia Thomas; two brothers, Ernest Wall and Eustace Thornton, Jr.; five sisters, Kathleen Ranson, Ida Jane Thornton, Diana Winkler, Josephine Knox and Veronica Shannon; two brothers-in-law, Charles Shannon and Rubin Knox; one sister-in-law, Julia Wall; three godchildren, Andrew Cornish, Keno Bowman, Jr. and Aliyana Toney; nephews, nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the Thornton's Family: I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family & friends. It's at times like these that we need comfort. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises a "resurrection" - Acts 24: 15. Yes, Almighty God, through his Son Jesus Christ, will bring back our dearly beloved ones in a paradise- Luke 23: 43. These words have brought me great comfort during my times of sorrow, and I hope that they will do the same for you.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To Family and Friends: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. I would like to share a promise with you. That promise is found at Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." May this divinely inspired promise give you much comfort and solace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
