“ Hi! Hatcher's ! May the family and friends of Dwayne be having peace of mind and heart today. Time is moving forward, it will be a year in September since Dwayne died. Our creator will manke all things new as Rev.21:5 say , new in the sence that we will never have to die ,worry, pay for every thing that we need now, food ,houses, etc,. I am looking forward to that time. Our loved one coming back in the resurrection having a chance to learn and do God's will. May these few thoughts help to ease the pain of losing Dwayne. I send my condolences, Lillian,C.##imported-begin##lillian C.##imported-end##
