

Dwayne E. Hatcher

January 11, 1968 - September 10, 2006

God called DWAYNE EDWARD DORSEY HATCHER to a peaceful resting place on Sunday, September 10, 2006 at University of Maryland Hospital. Dwayne was the son of the late Mae Hatcher and the late Robert L. Dorsey. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Wade and Mamie Davis, his brother Derrick and sister Tina. Dwayne was educated in the Anne Arundel County public school system. He was employed by Office Movers. Dwayne trademark smile was like a beam of sunlight that brought a warm feeling into the lives of those in his presence. "All Ice", as he liked to be called, loved to laugh. His joy was his children whom he loved dearly. Family and friends were very important to him. He created his own old school version of "Happy Birthday" which he sang at family birthday gatherings. In departing this life Dwayne gave life to six strangers through his organ donation. His name will be placed on a plaque on the Wall of Honor for organ donors at the University of Maryland Hospital. He is survived by: his fiancée, Renee Branche; six children, Daijah, Ebony, Dwayne Jr., Carollyne, Atlantis and Diamesha; one brother, James Hatcher; three sisters, Diana Dorsey, Constance Mack and Scherwyn Dorsey; his nurturing mother/father role models, Aunt Christine and Uncle Harry Harrison; his maternal grandmother, Doris Hargrove; three aunts, Delores Kennedy, Diann Hargrove and Deborah Davis; four uncles, William Davis, Allen Davis, Norman Davis, and Walter Hargrove; seven nieces, four nephews, a host of great aunts, great-uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.
