“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Sadly, we all continue to lose our loved ones in death, and it is so unfair and heartbreaking for the family left behind. One day soon, our loving heavenly father, Jehovah God, promises to end all sickness and death. That is why he sacrificed his beloved Son Jesus, so that through his precious blood we could have an opportunity for eternal life in peaceful conditions. John 3,16 says, "For God loved the world so much, that he gave his only-begotten son; so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." ONE day your Dwayne will live again, because Daniel 12,2 tells us, "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Please find comfort in God's promises of a better day, as well as in your precious memories you have of Dwayne.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Despite the pain, you can be comforted by the wonderful promise stated at Rev 21:4--"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." Yes, Jehovah God promises that through the shed blood of Jesus Christ and the benefits of the ransom, death will be done away with forever in the near future. The Christian hope of the resurrection is truly comforting.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
