

Dwayne E. Linton, Sr.

November 29, 1963 - March 7, 2016

DWAYNE EDGAR LINTON SR. was born on November 29, 1963, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Leo Linton Sr. and Delores Linton. Preceding him in death is his sister, Delores G. Linton and dear friends, Larry Redman and Harry.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Lake Clifton Sr. High School in 1983. He married Zena Goins in 1987 and from that union he raised one son and two step children. Dwayne continued with his life and raised an additional six children. His famous quotes were "Never give up!" and "Everything happens for a reason". Dwayne worked numerous jobs. His first job was at Eddie's Supermarket as a stock clerk. He worked at Canada Dry as a delivery and salesman. He then moved on to drive for Baltimore City and finally ending his career working for Johns Hopkins security.

Dwayne enjoyed spending his time watching the Orioles and Ravens games on television and taking his family to the games. When he was not watching the games, he would play video games with his children on Play Station 3 and 4. Dwayne loved listening to the "80's" and "90's" songs, watching movies with his children, and being playful with his nieces, nephews and grandchildren. Dwayne was a family man. He loved Royal Farms "World Famous Fried Chicken" and frequent family dinners. He was very proud of the accomplishments of his children and the positive changes he made in his life. Dwayne leaves to cherish his memory: his eight children, Dwayne Jr.,

Dominick, LaShawn, Dawana, Derrick, Dakeria, Destiny, and Dashay; two step children, Timothy and Pooh; fourteen grandchildren, San'ye, Skye, Lashay, Maurice, Antonio, Aubrie, Micah, Myana, Maddy, Nylah; four other grandchildren; two brothers, Leo Jr. and Dovon; three sisters, Lisa, Denise, and Shadonna; brother-in-law, Don Sr.; sister-in-law, Jeneice; five nieces, Kori, Kameelah, Jeneal, Jennifer and Lea; two nephews, Don Jr. and Marcus; and a host of family and friends.
