

Dwayne A. Reid

April 22, 1974 - February 28, 2015

Dwayne Antonio Reid Sr., son of Vanessa Brown (Biological Mother) and James Evans (Biological Father), CandisVonzella Taft (Mother), Earl Johnson Taft, (Father). Dwayne was born on April 22, 1974; he departed this life on February 28, 2015.

Dwayne received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools; he also obtained a degree studying the law. He enjoyed cooking and decided to work as a chef.

He loved spending time with his twin brother, together they would reminisce about their childhood and the fact that their hearts were so connected; even when they were apart. Dwayne also enjoyed spending time with his family; he adored the bond he and his family shared. Often times he devoted his weekends to playing football with the boys in the family but his favorite sport was boxing. He loved the challenge in any game.

Dwayne made friends whenever and wherever he went. He will be truly missed by those who knew him. Dwayne could be described as a loyal friend and devoted family man.

He leaves to cherish his wife, Cherice C. Reid, three sons, Dwayne Reid Jr., Deontay Reid, Khai'Lei Collins, one daughter who was his only girl and she was adored by Dwayne, Diara Reid. Nine step children, one granddaughter, three brothers and one sister, Ricky Hopper Sr. (deceased), Darryl Reid Sr. (twin), Melvin Hamilton and Annette Taylor. Dwayne also leaves to cherish his mother Candis Taft, father, Earl Johnson Taft, mother in-law, Esther Martin, Father-in-law Willie Martin, two sisters in-law, one brother in-law, six nephews, one niece and a host of close family and friends.
