

Dwayne Sippio

April 17, 1968 - March 12, 2019

Dwayne Sippio, son of John Henry and Shirley Sippio, born April 12, 1968, departed this life suddenly on March 12, 2019.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School system and attended Patterson High School. Later, he proudly received his G.E.D.

Dwayne was raised in Redeemed Tabernacle of Jesus Christ, formerly Highway Christian Church of Christ, under the leadership of Bishop Douglas E. Williams. He received the Gift of the Holy Ghost at a very young age, was active in the youth ministry, attended Sunday School, and sang on the youth choir. It was at the Youth Counsel where he received the Award of King, which was an exciting and memorable event for him.

Dwayne was an attentive worker who could be relied upon to get the job done. He took pride in his work and was known for being a faithful committed employee. His position of stock clerk was no different. Dwayne demonstrated the same level of commitment no matter the task.

He was an avid sportsman. He enjoyed such sports as football and baseball, but basketball was his passion. His love for basketball was so great, that he could play the sport for hours on end! Perfecting his technique was important to him, and it fueled his competitive spirit. There were many games played during family gatherings. Dwayne simply did not want to lose. Winning was in his spirit!

Wherever Dwayne went he made friends. He was well known and always striving to give a helping hand; traits that he inherited from his dad.

Dwayne's dad, John Henry and his brother Douglas Sippio preceded him in death.

Dwayne leaves to cherish his fond memory: his mother, Shirley Sippio; one son, Dwayne Jr; his daughter, Demetrius Branch; grandson, Victor Salvador the third; two sisters; Genel Sippio and Mashawan Sippio-Braden;

(Scott); two brothers, Johnny and Lamont Sippio; a devoted friend/fiance, Nanette Sullers; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
