

Dwayne Vanlandingham

February 21, 1957 - October 3, 2022

Dwayne Lamont Vanlandingham, Sr., affectionately known as “Doby” was called home to be with his Lord and Savior on Monday, October 3, 2022, at Union Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Dwayne was born on February 21, 1957. The middle son of Albert Lee and Maxine Vanlandingham. He attended public schools in Baltimore City. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy in November 1974. He was stationed in Jacksonville, FL, where he trained to become a naval pilot. After an honorable discharge, Dwayne worked for Cheltenham Youth Facility as a Counselor.

Dwayne was a gregarious, fun – loving man who lived life on his terms. He was very knowledgeable advice for everyone. He was a hard man to understand, but he was a brilliant mathematician who loved his family and was extremely protective of them.

He is preceded in death by his parents Albert Lee and Maxine Vanlandingham, and one brother, Derrick Vanlandingham.

Dwayne leaves to cherish his memory, one daughter, Tara McCray (Craig); one son, Dwayne Vanlandingham, Jr.; ten grandchildren, Keon Hardy, Charity McCray, and Dominic Nai’Lynn, Nixan, Shren, Breiona , Deion, Nori and Nash

Vanlandingham; three brothers, Rodney (Michelle), Shawn, and Bryan Vanlandingham (Tawanda); and a host of other relatives and friends.
