

Dwight Nathaniel Taylor Sr.

February 14, 1986 - April 9, 2011

DWIGHT NATHANIEL TAYLOR, SR., the son of Oliver Nathaniel Taylor, Sr. and Tanya Ashe, was born February 14, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Saturday, April 9, 2011.

In June 2005, Dwight became the proud father of Amiyah Taylor, in October 2007, he welcomed his second daughter A'Nijai Taylor and in June 2009, he welcome his first-born son Dwight Taylor, Jr. Dwight loved his children dearly. They were his heart, and he would do anything for them.

Growing up, Dwight, also called "Debo" by friends, enjoyed playing sports, especially basketball. He also found a passion in music where his freestyling techniques and lyric were beyond measure. He came up with the stage name Young H.I.D. (Hold It Down). He recorded with many people in the area, including childhood friend Kenny also known as DJ K Spin. He then joined forces with Edwin Hanks and Thomas Covell to form the group called U.V.G (United Guest). They performed many show throughout the area and other cities. U.V.G was and is a force to be reckoned with.

Dwight was one of a kind. He was the type of person that if you were having a bad day, he would do or say something funny to make you laugh. He was a great son, brother, grandson, nephew, father, cousin, and friend. His memory shall live on!

He leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Amiyah and A'Nijai Taylor; one son, Dwight Taylor, Jr.; his parents; two sister, Toni and Ashley Taylor; four brothers, Oliver, Jr. Quran, Corey, and Kenyon Taylor; grandmother, Helen Ashe; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives, and friends whom were blessed to know him.

“ When Dwight was a baby (he was so fat) I asked my sister if I could keep him for the weekend. When I got him home he wouldn't stop crying, after two hours of trying to console him I took him home. As soon as I put him in his mothers arms, he snuggled his face under her neck and stopped crying (momma's boy).

*Dwight,
No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

Gone but not forgotten, Love Aunt Cherry
