

Earl Butler

November 17, 1958 - June 27, 2002

Earl Butler, son of Lawrence McCallum and Mamie Muse, was born on November 17, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed this life on June 27, 2002 after a sudden illness. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. At the age seventeen he entered the United States Army where he served as a Corporal. Later in the years he entered the Army Reserves and was a record clerk. Earl received several certificates. He also had a handyman certificate. Earl was a fun-loving person who loved sports, birds, computers, music and all sorts of tropical fish. Earl made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone. He was a true friend and was a devoted uncle to his nieces and nephews. He leaves to mourn: one loving mother, Mamie Muse; stepfather, Willie Muse; four sisters, Brenda Bagley, Nancy Hartgrove, Sheila Lovings and Lou Pearl McCallum; nine brothers, Breston Harris, Lacy Butler, Robert Butler, James Butler, Larry Butler, Willie Muse Jr., Vincent Butler, Lawrence McCallum and Leroy McCallum; one grandmother, Viola Thomas; three aunts, one uncle, three brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, one godchild and a host of nieces and nephews. He had a very special friend, Threasa Brown.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
