

Earl D. Johnson

December 5, 1922 - January 19, 2004

“God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the Earth and saw Earl’s tired face. He put His arms around him and lifted him to rest. God’s garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.”EARL DEWITT JOHNSON, son of the late Ernest and Sarah Robinson, was born on December 5, 1922, in Baltimore, Maryland. After a courageous battle with cancer, he crossed over for eternal rest on Monday, January 19, 2004. Earl was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Douglas High School. After graduating, Earl worked for the Maryland Dry-dock Company, Holtite Rubber Company, and the Baltimore City Public School System. He served as Maintenance Engineer Supervisor in several Baltimore City Schools until he retired in 1985. Administrators and staff at the various schools were fond of Earl and treated him with utmost respect. It was at Holtite Rubber Company in 1949 where he met his wife, the former Margaret Dunlap. They were wedded on October 7, 1950. God blessed their union for 53 years. Earl spent many hours drawing and watching television. He was not a man of many words unless the topic of the conversation was World or National News. Earl subscribed to and was an avid reader of Time Magazine and National Geographic. He was very knowledgeable about the world in which he lived and could converse about almost any world or national issue. Earl was respected and loved by his neighbors and friends. He always thanked God for his blessings and those of his family. To celebrate his life and cherish his memory are his devout wife

Margaret; daughter, Earline Wilson; sons, Earl Wesley Johnson, Jerome McCrearry and Allen Ward; six grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, one brother, two sisters-in-law, nieces and nephews and a host of other family and friends.

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
