“ I am sorry for your great loss. I send the family my condolences. But the Bible also offers a hope we can count on. John 5 28:29 tells us there will be a resurrection; we will see our dead loved ones again! Also, Isaiah 33:24 tells us there will be a time with no sickness. For now, we must wait on Jehovah God and do his will.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The Bible rightly calls death our "enemy" and it also promises that our Creator will do away with death. (First Corinthians 15:26) What hope is there for our loved ones who have died? Acts 24:15 states-"there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort, strength and hope from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
