

Earl C. Jones, Jr.

April 15, 1957 - October 23, 2020

Earl Carter Jones, Jr, the son of Dorothy and Earl Jones, Sr, was born in Baltimore, MD on April 15, 1957. After a brief illness, he departed this life on October 23, 2020. Earl's parents trained him up in the way he should go. At an early age, he gave his life to the Lord at Waters A.M.E. Church. Earl had a thirst and a hunger for righteousness. He loved God's word and grew in faith as a result of the gospel preached and taught at the Church of the Redeemed of the Lord.

Earl received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from THE City College High School in 1975. He took great pride in his alma mater, attending various alumnae events, especially the annual City Poly Game and tailgate. After graduating High School, Earl served in the United States Army National Guard. Over the years, Earl held various jobs but he found a career with the Baltimore City Police Department in 1987. Affectionately known as Big Earl to his Housing Family, Earl loved community policing. His passion was not only to protect and serve but to build relationships, mentor, and share wisdom with anyone he encountered. Earl retired from the Baltimore City School Police in October 2019.

Relationships mattered so much to Earl. It was impossible to be in his presence and not have a good time. His sense of humor was infectious. His love of history, especially family and Baltimore's history had to be shared. Earl was known for hosting family gatherings where he showed off his culinary skills.

Earl leaves to mourn his wife, Yelva, sisters, Denita (Ron) Harlee and Monteece Jones, brother

Eric Jones, son Earl III, grandsons Earl IV and Jaylin and granddaughter Jhene, as well as a host of devoted family and friends.
